Incident Summary: On August 16, 2019, at approximately 6:30 a.m., the victims were awakened from their bed by two unknown male suspects. At least one of the suspects was armed with a handgun. The suspects threatened the victims and demanded money. A struggle ensued and shots were exchanged between the residents and the suspects. Mr. Rakim Willis sustained a gunshot wound to the right leg and possibly left hand. Ms. Satin Anderson was not injured. The suspects fled the home in an unknown direction. It is unknown at this time if either suspect sustained injuries.

Victim Rakim Willis was transported to Grant Hospital in stable condition.

The suspects were described as: #1) male, black, early to mid 40's, 5'7" tall, bald, salt and pepper beard, medium complexion, wearing a gray shirt, red cap and armed with a silver handgun. Suspect #2) male, black, unknown age, dark complexion, stocky build, wearing a black shirt and black mask.
